

BeamYourScreen

Case Study - Fugro Engineers

Fugro is a world leader in Geotechnical and Geoscience services. Since 1962, Fugro has provided valuable advice to a variety of industries by interpreting the earth's surface. The company has grown tremendously in the last 35 years. It now has 10000 employees and sales of 1.8 billion dollars.

“BeamYourScreen is working great ... it has proved itself to be a powerful tool ... the performance is great and the interface is just brilliant!”

Hendrik Falepin
Project Engineer
Fugro Engineers

The Challenge

Since Fugro has clients around the world, they needed a tool to simplify communication with their customers and prospects. They wanted a way to present their complex analyses while reducing the cost and time of doing so. “We were looking for a simple and fast way to present our solutions all over the globe.” says Hendrik Falepin, Project Engineer and Software Developer at Fugro Engineers.

The Solution

The BeamYourScreen software solution gave Fugro the ability to easily connect with people worldwide. It has enabled Fugro to more efficiently communicate with their customers and has allowed them to respond faster to customer needs, which is crucial in their industry. “I have been on a business trip in Australia and BeamYourScreen enabled me to do presentations with Holland and Malaysia! That is exactly what we were looking for.” states Hendrik. “The feedback from our clients has been extremely positive. The program setup is very simple and customers can connect with only one click.”

The Conclusion

BeamYourScreen has helped Fugro minimize the cost and time of doing business. It has allowed Fugro to more effectively operate all over the world and helped them to stay on top of their industry.
